BIOGRAPHY

Odmaa Uranchimeg was born in Ulaanbaatar in 1980. She received a degree in ceramic arts from the Institute of Fine Arts, Mongolia, and subsequently completed a printmaking residency in Daejeon, Korea. Odmaa's work skillfully weaves together references to Buddhist imaginaries, organic materials, and modernist abstraction. Her background in ceramics and printmaking prompts her method of combining diverse material in her sculptures, and playing with forms that allow her to reference eastern and western cultures. Her work has been featured in several biennales and solo exhibitions, including the Ulaanbaatar International Art Festival (2018), the Nakanojo Biennale (2019, Nakonogo, Japan), and the Land Art Mongolia Biennale (2018).

ABOUT LKHAM GALLERY

Based in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, Lkham Gallery strives to promote contemporary art and culture of the Mongolian-speaking world and the broader Central Asian region. Lkham represents both emerging and mid-career artists working in a wide range of media.

As the first gallery of its kind in Mongolia, Lkham envisions itself as an open door. Through regular exhibitions, publications, and a dynamic public program, the gallery aims to facilitate dialogue between local artists and the public, and to galvanize patronage of local artists throughout its community, the region, and beyond. Lkham also regularly hosts lectures by experts working in a variety of fields and will provide residency opportunities for local and international artists.

Founded in 2022 by entrepreneur Natsagsuren Mangalam, the gallery bears the name of her grandmother.
